Question Sets for "Crop It"

Set 1
Crop to show what first caught your eye.
Think: Why did you notice this part?

Crop to show who or what this image is about.
Think: Why is this person or thing important?

Crop to a clue that shows where this takes place.
Think: What has happened at this place?

Crop to a clue that tells when this is happening
Think: What helps us recognize specific times?

Crop to show tension or a problem.
Think: Do you see other problems?

Crop to show the most important part of the image.
Think: Why is this important?

Set 2
Crop to show an engaging beginning.
Think: What makes beginnings engaging?

Crop to show a high point middle.
Think: What makes a story interesting?

Crop to show a memorable ending.
Think: Why do we remember stories

Set 3
Crop to a clue that tells us the title of this image.
Think: What does the title and date of the image tell you?

Set 3 (continued)
Crop to a clue that you have a question about.
Think: What is your question?

Crop to a fact that this image definitively tells us about the past.
Think: How do you know this is a fact?

Crop to why this image was important at the time it was created.
Think: What else was going on during this time period?

Crop to a place where you would add something to this image.
Think: What would you add and why?

Set 4
Crop to a clue that shows the emotion expressed in the image.
Think: How do colors, lines, and shapes express emotion?

Crop to the part of the image that speaks to you.
Think: Is this image asking you a question or giving you an answer?

Crop to the part of the image the creator thinks is most important.
Think: How did the creator draw our attention to this important part?

Crop to a part of the image that shows motion.
Think: Are things moving fast or slow? What makes you think that?

Crop to a pattern in this image.
Think: Why is this a pattern?

Author: Rhonda Bondie
Source: http://teachinghistory.org/teaching-materials/teaching-guides/25697