

Examples1. Interview

Interviewer: In your day, what did people expect you to do?

Victoria Woodhull: They expected me to stay home and raise a family. If I did get a job, all the money I earned would go to my husband. I was expected to keep quiet. But I would have none of it. I said then, and I still believe now, that I was way ahead of my time. I refused to do what people expected me to do.

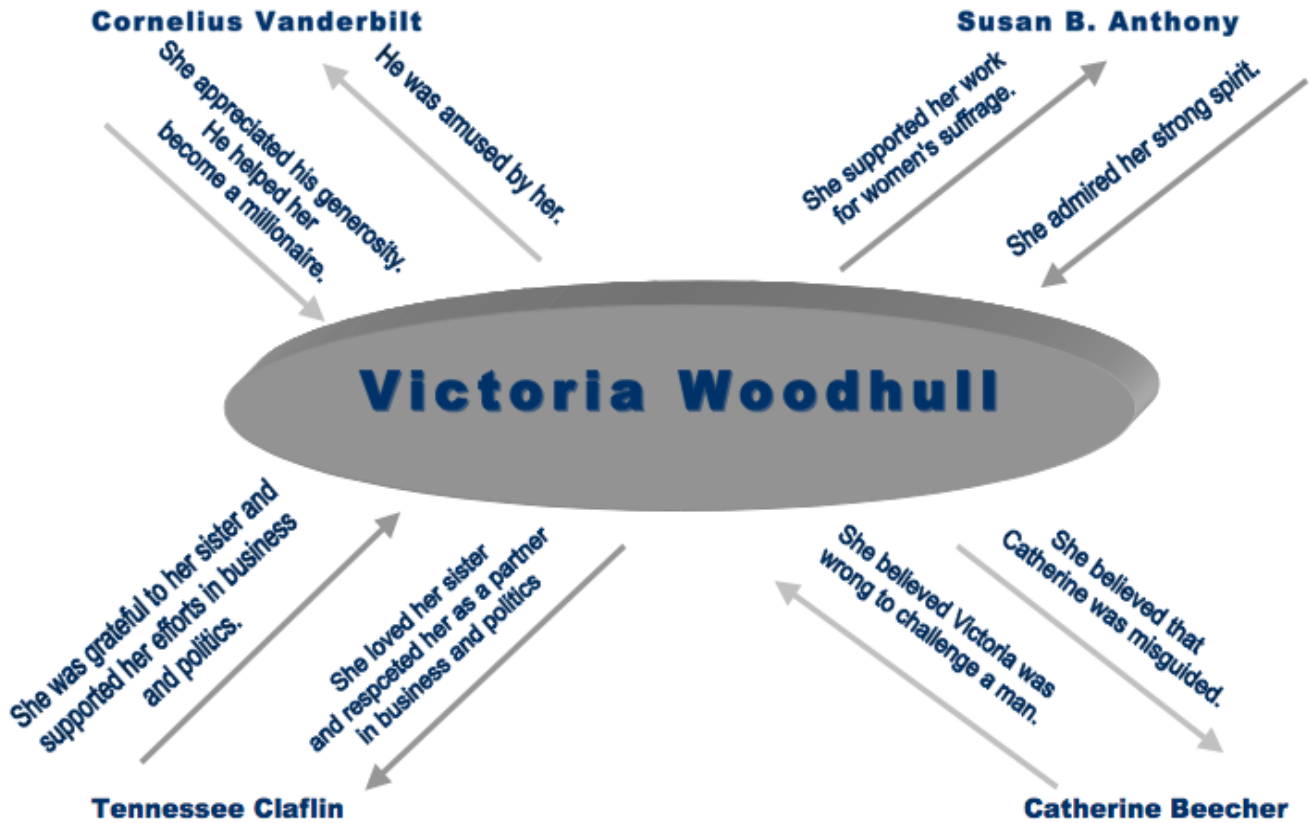

Interviewer: What was your biggest accomplishment?

Victoria Woodhull: I did many things that I am proud of, but my biggest accomplishment was running for president. Remember, women couldn't even vote in 1872. But, no law prevented a woman from becoming president, so I decided to throw my hat in the ring. I am very proud of that.

Source: <http://teachinghistory.org/teaching-materials/teaching-guides/21867>

2. Sociogram

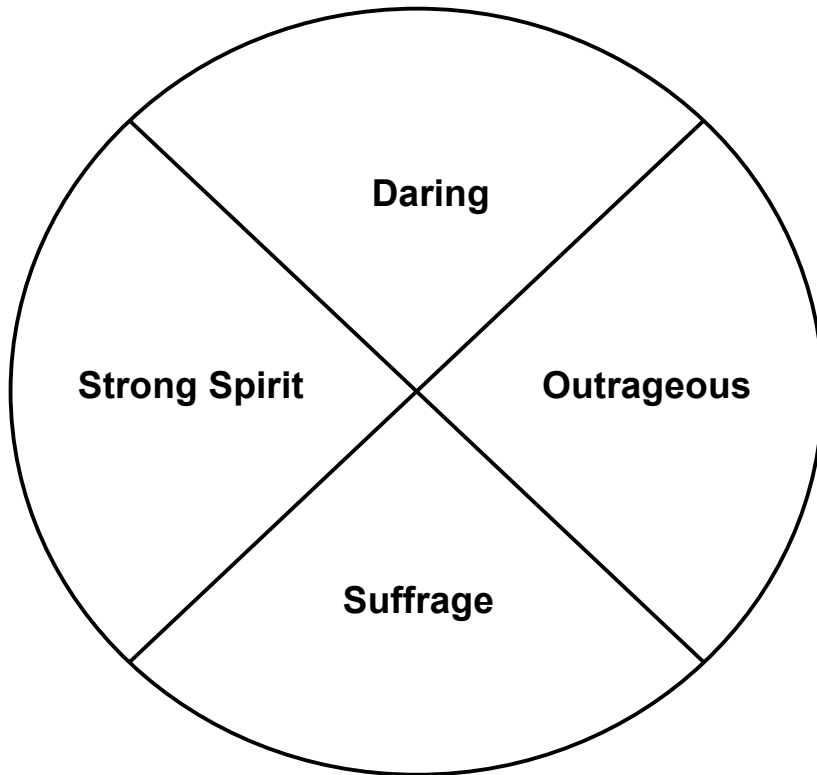

CHARACTER SOCIOGRAM

Source: <http://teachinghistory.org/teaching-materials/teaching-guides/21867>

3. Concept Circle

Concept Circle Victoria Woodhull

Summary: While some people thought that Victoria Woodhull's behavior was outrageous, her actions were simply the result of her strong spirit and firm convictions. She was an outspoken supporter of women's right to vote. To achieve this goal she was willing to run for president even though women didn't have the right to vote. It was a daring step that she undertook for a cause she supported.

Source: <http://teachinghistory.org/teaching-materials/teaching-guides/21867>